

WASHINGTON STAR

20 July 1958

Senator Thye, Republican of Minnesota: I cannot see that the President could have done other than what he did in ordering a Marine unit to stand on the soil of Lebanon to defend precious American lives. I believe that such action will make it possible to halt further aggression, and thereby give the United Nations organization the opportunity to review the situation and bring about some order in the Middle East.